Re: DOCKET NO. 2018-355-T–Jason Kupiec, Complainant/Petitioner v. JMS
Worldwide, LLC,

Dear Ms. Boyd,

Per a letter received from a Mr. Charles L.A. Terreni, on November 30th, 2018, I became aware of an apparent filing in my interest before the Public Service Commission.

I Jason Kupiec hereby affirm and decree that the notice dated September 16th, 2018 purported to be my statement and complaint was not directly, or indirectly filled by me or an entity authorized on my behalf. I did not initiate this action, or fully affirm the statements presented. A claim for relief against the party has been filed in another jurisdiction, well before the receipt of this petition; corroborating the lack of necessity for this action. The documents in question were located on a cloud server, and it is believed that they were accessed via a third party for duplicitous filing. Please note that the notice of complaint, and subsequent papers were received via the PSC well after the apparent signing date. Secondly, the complaint and subsequent papers do not contain notary affirmations, and subsequent seals; therefore the identity of the complainant purported to be me (Jason Kupiec) cannot be established.

Consequently, I am hereby requesting that all motions, filing, and papers related to this complaint be expunged in full, and the matter be dismissed without unnecessary delay.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Jason Kupiec

Jason Kupiec
